"RIGHT HAS A RIGHT"

Everyone is right
In their own perspective.
They are just
Arguing to prove themselves.

They themselves are
Leaving their own life
So they wish to live,
How exactly they want to live.

When perspective changes
And that's viewed
By others, they
Try to prove them wrong.

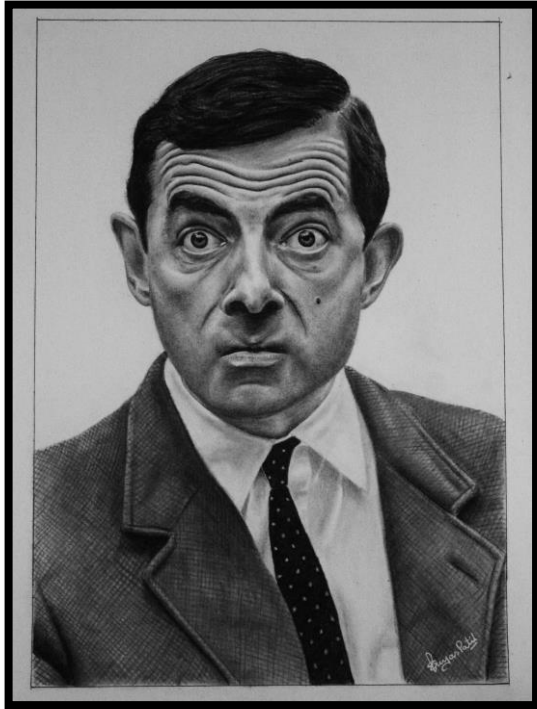

Just one thing is,
Is to understand
Standing on their footprint
And cope up without proving wrong.

Atleast you can make them
Understand what they
Still have to understand
They just need little more love.

With care when you handle
Suttle things just solve
Without any harm , the truth is
Is to trust them when you really know them.

So they might have
Shoulder of strength
And so it might be the Reason to face the hard time.
